- Qualifications, skills, previous and current employment.

Why we collect and use this information

We use your data to:

- Enable the development of a comprehensive picture of governance and how it is deployed
- To enable appropriate checks to be completed
- Enable individuals to be kept informed of governance training, book training and relevant information
- To inform relevant authorities/organisations of a member/trustee/governor/clerk appointment
- Monitor equalities

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We process this information under Legal Obligation; further to section 538 of the Education Act 1996, governing boards must provide information they hold about their governors and governance arrangements to the Secretary of State for Education through Get Information About Schools, (GIAS). Under The School Governance (Constitution and Federations) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2016 it is a requirement for all governors to have an enhanced DBS check. The Constitution of Governing Bodies of Maintained Schools Statutory Guidance, August 2017, stipulates that governor and associate member information is published on the school website; (name, category of governor, term of office, appointed by, any office held [such as chair, vice-chair, safeguarding lead], summary of relevant business interests, and attendance at meetings).

Collecting this information

The information will be collected via new governor starter forms by the clerk to governors.

Storing this information

We hold governor, associate member and clerk data for the length of time that the individual serves or until they resign plus 12 months (this is how long information appears on GIAS and the school website). The school website must include stipulated information governors and associate members who have served in the last 12 months; (name, category of governor, term of office, appointed by, any office held (such as chair, vice-chair, safeguarding lead), summary of relevant business interests, attendance at meetings).

Who we share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- Devon Local Authority – through the Babcock Idp Governance Consultancy Team
- The Department for Education (DfE) through Get Information about Schools (GIAS)
- National Governance Association / Governor Hub / The Key etc (if the school holds membership)
- School Office
- Other governors on the same governing board
- Disclosure and Barring Service
- The clerk to the board

Why we share governor, associate member and clerk information

We do not share information about governors, associate members or clerks with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local Authority and Babcock Idp

We are required to share appointment and resignation information about board members with Devon Local Authority (LA) for inclusion on the ONE database.

As a school which subscribes to The Governance Consultancy Team we share information for booking training and accessing support services.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE), through Get Information About Schools (GIAS).

National Governance Association (NGA) [for use by schools that subscribe to governor support or to the NGA]

In order to access the NGA website and receive weekly email updates it is necessary for the NGA to have names and email addresses for all members of the board. Home addresses for those trustees/governors receiving the hard copy of the NGA magazine will also be supplied. In order for the clerk to pass on email details to the NGA a member, trustee or governor will be required to give complicit consent. An individual can unsubscribe at any time.

Governor Hub [for use by schools that subscribe to governor hub]

Sharing of governance information (minutes, agendas, supporting papers for meetings) is managed through Governor Hub ensuring that it is not necessary for individuals to hold these papers on personal electronic devices.

The Key [for use by schools that subscribe to governor hub]

In order to access The Key website and receive email updates it is necessary for The Key to have names and email addresses for all members of the board. In order for the clerk to pass on email details to the Key a member, trustee or governor will be required to give complicit consent. An individual can unsubscribe at any time.

School Office

In case of emergency or an Ofsted inspection it is necessary for the school office to hold details of any individuals involved in the governance of the school. The school Single Central Record will record that appropriate checks have been carried out for everyone involved in the governance of the school.

Other members/trustees/governors on the same Governing Board or in the same MAT

For ease of communication and with your consent contact details may be shared with other governors on the board.

Disclosure and Barring Service

All maintained school governors are required to have an enhanced criminal records certificate from the DBS. Further details on DBS checks and Section 128 checks in schools are within the statutory guidance Keeping Children Safe in Education (KCSIE).
